As we stand on the cusp of a new year, I am filled with immense pride and gratitude for all that we have achieved together so far at Cumbernauld Theatre Trust. I cannot wait to welcome you, your friends and family to share new memories and magical moments in the months ahead.

At the heart of our offerings is Encore!, our in-house celebration of the best in musical theatre. We're also hosting some of the country's leading works from visiting companies from the visually stunning Ruins by MHZ to the riveting dark comedy Don't. Make. Tea from Birds of Paradise. If you're into making resolutions, join us in the world of dance where you can get involved in STRUT, our community collaboration alongside Feral Arts, or to see Pain and I, a combustive work exploring the realities of living with chronic pain, and a promise to yourself you won't regret.

Our Take Part Classes are back, including new offerings of our Easter Holiday Play in a Week and the Paragon-led Track. There's also family fun galore with Myths of the Vikings, Alice in Wonderland, Cardboard Carnival, and the return of The Amazing Bubble Man set to light up the faces of your little ones, offering a slice of heaven for the entire family.

If you crave a chuckle, our revamped Lanternhouse Laughs will feature Saturday night feature shows from some of the circuit's favourites, or you can join us for An Evening With Still Game's Mark & Jane, aka Tam and Isa.

If you weren't already spoiled for choice, you can relax to the sound of Baroque with Dunedin Consort, and be mesmerised by Quartet Malamatima in our spring music programme. The Tommy Smith Youth Jazz Orchestra returns, as does Jon Ritchie and That Swing Sensation. Cumbernauld Folk Club is also entering its third season, plus we've got our biggest smorgasbord of tribute nights yet. It really is going to be a bumper season in Cumbernauld!

...and there's more. The winter and early spring months are perfect for ducking into a cosy cinema and settling in for two hours of movie magic. Lanternhouse Cinema is the place for doing just that. Whether you're coming along with friends, family or flying solo, we'd love to see you for a catchup and a chance to give some January blockbusters a try - you never know what you'll find when the lights go down. None of this would be possible without the support of our incredible community. If you'd like to play a part in producing and hosting top theatre in Cumbernauld, I invite you to join our Friends community. Together, we'll keep our doors open for generations to come.
